

POPULISTS NAME PRESIDENT LAST

USUAL ORDER OF NOMINATION IS REVERSED.

Platform Declares Against Gold, Bank Notes and the Electoral College—President, Vice-President and Senators Should Be Chosen by the People.

Populist Convention Hall, St. Louis, July 24.—It was freely declared when the delegates appeared this morning, that the transportation question would be touched on, and the initiative and referendum plank be inserted in the platform. Finance, however, was the key note of the talk.

The chairman called the convention to order at 10:05. Ohio delegates presented him with a gavel made of 68 pieces, and 48 kinds of wood, representing each state and territory. Texas announced her refusal to appoint a member of the committee to confer with the silverites.

The minority recommendation that

Allen's order Pine was removed by the police amid great uproar.

The majority report on the platform was adopted, and the convention proceeded at 4:20 to the nomination of vice president.

Nominating speeches took considerable time.

The much-discussed "gag resolution," which was so nearly adopted yesterday, came up in this way:

Delegate Crawford of Kansas moved that the doors of the convention be thrown open to the delegates of the silver convention. This motion was greeted with loud cries of "No, no; we don't want any packed galleries." "That is a Bryan annex." "Keep them out." The hostile demonstrations threatened to become turbulent, when Sergeant-at-Arms McDowell turned the laugh on the anti-Bryan men by telling the convention that he had already given every silver delegate a generous supply of admission tickets.

Delegate Washburn of Massachusetts offered a resolution as follows: "Whereas, We are all populists and deprecate the talk that has appeared in some newspapers that there is a disposition on the part of any portion of this convention to refuse to abide by the action of the convention; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we repudiate all such utterances as a reflection on the fidelity of the members of this convention of the members of the people's party."

A Florida delegate moved to lay the motion on the table. The motion was carried on a viva-voce vote, and the anti-Bryan men declared that they had won first blood. The convention then took a recess until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

It was half an hour after the chairman had called the convention to order for the afternoon session when the committee on credentials reported. The committee recommended the seating of all uncontested delegates, and further recommended that in the Cook county, Illinois, contest each faction be seated, and each delegate be given a half vote each. The committee further recommended that the Patterson delegation of Colorado be seated.

The first part of the report, relating to the uncontested delegates, was adopted. Tom Patterson of Colorado moved that the contests be taken up in alphabetical order. He said that the chairman of the Texas delegation had informed him that a minority of the credentials committee was preparing a minority report, and that he had no desire to force matters until both sides had been heard. For that reason he moved that the consideration of the Colorado contest be deferred until the minority report was ready. This was agreeable to the convention, and the motion was carried.

The Illinois contest was then taken up. The majority report of the committee on credentials recommended that both the Taylor and the Buras-Hogan factions be seated and each given one-half vote. A minority report was presented, signed by a number of the members of the credentials committee, which recommended that the Taylor faction alone be seated, claiming that it was the only regularly elected populist delegation.

When a viva-voce vote on the minority report was taken the chairman was unable to arrive at a decision, and the first roll call of the convention by states was ordered. The report was formally adopted by a viva-voce vote. It was announced that the anti-Patterson contestants from Colorado had withdrawn their contest, and also that the contestants in the Missouri delegation had drawn out. This left but the Wisconsin contest to be settled. The contestants were Rublee A. Cole and Samuel Isaacs, from the fourth Wisconsin district. After some preliminary skirmishing the majority report was adopted, and Isaacs was seated.

New York called for the report of the committee on permanent organization. Some of the delegates wanted to adjourn until 8 o'clock, but the anti-Bryan people objected.

Planks in the Platform.

The people's party, assembled in national convention, reaffirms its allegiance to the principles declared by the founders of the republic and also to the fundamental principles of just government, as enunciated in the platform of the party in 1892, but recognizes that through the action of the present and preceding administrations the country has reached a crisis in its national life, as predicted in our platform four years ago, and at present prompt and patriotic action is the supreme duty of the hour. To realize that while we have political independence our financial and industrial independence is yet to be attained by restoring to the people's government the constitutional control and exercise of the functions have been basely surrendered by our public servants to corporate monopolies. The influence of European money-changers has been more potent in shaping legislation than the voice of the American people. Executive power and patronage have been used to corrupt our legislatures and defeat the will of the people, and plutocracy has thereby been enthroned upon the ruins of democracy. To restore the government of the fathers and for the welfare and prosperity of this and future generations, we demand the establishment of our economic and financial systems, which shall make us masters of our own affairs and independent of European control, by the adoption of the following declaration of principles:

1. We demand a national currency, safe and sound, and issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and without the use of banking corporations; an honest, equitable and efficient means of distribution direct to the people, and through the lawful disbursements of the government.

2. We demand the free and unrestricted coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1 by the United States without waiting for the consent of foreign nations.

3. We demand that the volume of circulating medium be speedily increased to an amount sufficient to meet the demands of the business and population of this country, and to restore the just level of prices of labor and production, and thereby establish prosperity and happiness for the people.

4. We denounce the sale of bonds and the increase of the public interest bearing debt made by the present administration as unnecessary and without authority of law, and we demand a law absolutely prohibiting the sale of bonds and increase of the public debt, except in accordance with an act or acts of congress authorizing the same.

5. We demand such legislation as will prevent the demonetization of the lawful money of the United States by private contract.

6. We demand that the government in payment of its obligations shall use its option as to the kind of lawful money in which they are to be paid, and we denounce the present and preceding administrations for surrendering this option to the holders of government obligations.

7. We demand a graduated income tax to the end that aggregated wealth shall bear its just proportion of taxation, and we denounce the recent decision of the supreme court in regard to the income-tax as a misinterpretation of the constitution and an invasion of the rightful powers of congress over the subject of taxation.

8. We demand that postal savings banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of the savings of the people and to facilitate exchange.

A true policy demands that the national and state legislation shall be such as will ultimately enable every prudent and industrious man to own a home, and therefore the land should not be monopolized for speculative purposes.

All agricultural and grazing lands now held by railroad corporations in excess of their actual need should by lawful means be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only, and private land monopoly should be prevented by appropriate state and national legislation.

The Pacific railroad companies have, through the connivance of the interior department, robbed multitudes of actual and bona fide settlers of their homes and miners of their claims, and we demand legislation by congress which will enforce the exception of mineral land from such grants after, as well as before, patent.

We hold that all governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and in order that the consent of the governed may be clearly ascertained we favor direct legislation under proper constitutional safeguards so that a given percentage of the citizens shall have a right of initiating, framing and preparing laws and of compelling the submission thereof, and of all important laws, whether proposed by national, state or local legislatures, to a direct vote of the people for their approval or rejection.

Transportation being a means of exchange and a public necessity, the government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people; to the end that all men may be accorded the same treatment in transportation, and that the tyranny and political power now exercised by the great corporations, which result in the impairment, if not the destruction, of the political right and personal liberty of the citizen, may be destroyed. Such ownership is to be accomplished gradually, in a manner consistent with sound public policy.

The interest of the United States in the public highways built with public moneys and the proceeds of extensive grants of land, known as the Pacific railroads, should never be alienated, mortgaged or sold, but guarded and protected for the general welfare, as provided by the laws organizing said Pacific railroads. The foreclosure of the subsisting liens of the United States on these roads should at once follow default in the payment thereof by the debtor companies, and that after the foreclosures of said roads the government shall purchase the same if it becomes necessary to protect its interests therein, or if the same can be purchased at a reasonable price; and the government shall operate said railroads as public highways for the benefit of the whole people, and not in the interest of the few, under suitable provisions for protection of life and property, giving to all transportation interests equal privileges and equal rates for fares and freights.

We denounce the present infamous schemes for refunding these debts, and demand that the laws now applicable thereto be executed and administered according to their true intent and spirit.

The telegraph, like the postoffice system, being a necessity for the transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the government in the interest of the people.

Among those who were given hearings by the committee was a delegation of women, who appeared to advocate a declaration favorable to female suffrage. Mrs. Gougar and Mrs. Haskell of Montana were among the speakers.

Mr. Coxey made an effort to secure endorsement of his scheme for non-interest-bearing bonds for public improvements, but failed.

Platform Not Ready Until Late—List of Veterans in the Convention—Congressman Towne's Declaration Echoed by Helen M. Gougar and Other Speakers.

Silver Convention Hall, St. Louis, July 24.—The convention was called to order at 10:44 by Chairman St. John and was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Cobert, of the Missouri delegation.

The motion that when the convention adjourn it be until 3:30 p. m., and that the consideration of the platform be postponed until that hour was carried.

The roll call showed 196 union soldiers; 18 confederate soldiers and 4 Mexican veterans in the convention. Judge C. R. Scott, of Omaha, addressed the convention at 12 o'clock.

Some very radical speeches have been made in the course of the last two sessions. Vice-Chairman Charles A. Towne denounced the perniciousness of the present money system saying that the single gold standard would ruin the masses of the people. In November they would relegate the parties of the monopolies to oblivion and put in power men who had the interests of the people at heart.

He eulogized the Democratic candidate in glowing terms. Referring again to the money question, he said the gold standard was backed by men who used epithets and abuse instead of arguments. Speaking of Chauncey M. Depew, he said Mr. Depew was a gold-standard man and a monopolist, and wanted to impose the English yoke of gold on the necks of the people of America. He said the silver movement had grown to such proportions that victory was not only possible but certain; certain if the silver forces united.

Ex-Gov. John P. St. John was then called upon to speak. He was greeted with cheers. He said that a few months ago nearly every one believed that nothing on earth could defeat McKinley for president. But the surrender of American interests to Great Britain at the Republican convention had fallen upon McKinley like a bolt of lightning. It changed the sentiment of the whole country. Free silver, at 16 to 1, would sweep the nation. The cry was that if free silver was adopted it would make this country the dumping ground for the silver world. The speaker hoped it would. If all the silver in the world were dumped into this country and coined it would make $60 per capita. And that was not too much. Should this be done it would make this the most prosperous country of the world.

The next one to address the convention was Mrs. Helen M. Gougar of Indiana. She denounced the "goldbug monopolists" and "Wall street plutocracy" and "English bond sharks," and said the only salvation of the people from serfdom was to declare for the free coinage of silver.

Delegate Hall of Illinois said that a most potent influence upon the voters of the country in behalf of silver would be an announcement of the former party affiliations of the delegates to the silver convention. He moved that a poll of the delegations be taken for publication. The motion was carried, and the poll ordered to be taken at the next session.

R. A. Cole, Milwaukee, said that, while he had the greatest respect for Mrs. Gougar of Indiana, he did not think it wise to take up the cry of prohibition. The free-silver question was one that interested the masses, and should not be weighted down by prohibition. When he had finished, the convention took a recess till 2:30 o'clock.

It was 3 o'clock when Chairman St. John called for order. He announced that, owing to the fact that the people's party had not effected its permanent organization, no conference committee had been appointed. This would necessitate delay, but he hoped the delegates would be patient.

A resolution was adopted extending the thanks of the convention to Dr. J. J. Mott, chairman of the national committee, for the work he had performed in behalf of the free-silver cause.

Vice-Chairman Towne presided at the afternoon session. W. P. St. John moved that when the convention adjourn it be until 10 Friday. He did this because the conference committee was not ready to report. The motion prevailed by a vote of 151 to 146.

The following resolution was read and referred to the committee on resolutions: "Resolved, That the national committee of the silver, democratic and people's party be requested to refer to and designate the Bryan-Sewall ticket, whenever practicable, as the 'American-union ticket.'"

Pursuant to resolution, a poll of delegations was taken to show past party affiliation of silver delegates. The result was 526 republicans, 135 democrats, 47 populists, 9 prohibitionists, 1 greenbacker, 12 independents and 1 nationalist. Twenty states were represented.

Quotation from James G. Blaine's speech of 1880 in favor of remonetization of silver read by order of the convention. At 5:15 o'clock a recess was taken to 10 o'clock Friday.

WHAT THE ANTI-SILVER MEN DID

They Were Strong in Their Demand For Another Democratic Ticket.

Chicago, July 24.—Anti-silver democrats representing nine middle-western states met at the Auditorium Thursday night and by a unanimous vote decided to place a third presidential ticket in the field. Matters of detail, such as the date and the place for holding the convention, were delegated to a committee of one from each state, with instructions to report at the meeting this morning. The committee is as follows: Indiana, John R. Wilson; Iowa, Henry Vollmer; Ohio, S. H. Nolding; Michigan, W. R. Shelby; Kentucky, George M. Davis; Missouri, L. C. Krauthoff; Wisconsin, Senator Vilas, with General Bragg added; Illinois, Henry S. Robbins; Minnesota's representative to be appointed when the delegation from that state arrives.

The resolution deciding to issue the call for a convention, which was adopted without a dissenting vote, was as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this conference that there be a democratic national convention held, a democratic platform enunciated, and a democratic ticket nominated for the offices of president and vice-president of the United States, said convention to be held not later than September 2, 1896, and that a committee of one representative from each state represented in this conference be appointed for the purpose of preparing a call for said convention and arranging all the matters of detail connected therewith, said committee to report at 11 o'clock a. m. of Friday."

Gen. E. S. Bragg of Wisconsin was chosen chairman and C. A. Ewing of Chicago was made secretary. The conference was divided as to the advisability for immediate action. Some of those present advocated going before the people of their respective states to ascertain their feelings before calling the convention. There was no difference of opinion as to the advisability of placing a third ticket in the field, and those who favored immediate action said that everything was to be gained by calling the convention at once, and that delay would mean the loss of votes for the gold standard.

Gen. Bragg occasioned considerable excitement by declaring that if the election was held to-day the state of Wisconsin would give Bryan 50,000, whereas had it been held the day following the convention it would have gone 75,000 the other way. It was his opinion that the great press of the country did not appreciate the extent of the silver movement.

Senator Vilas, who was Gen. Bragg's colleague in the conference, was opposed to hasty action. F. W. Lehman of St. Louis argued that the Republican policy of protection would prove to be equally as bitter a pill for thousands of Democrats to swallow as the free silver dose administered by the Chicago convention. W. R. Haldeman of Kentucky said there were 40,000 to 50,000 Democrats in his state ready to repudiate the Chicago platform and support a third or gold ticket. Mr. Davis presented a resolution which provided that a conference of one delegate from each state be held in Detroit Sept. 1, the delegates to which should resolve themselves into a national committee and issue a call for a convention.

Mr. Krott of Louisville followed and spoke to the resolution, but insisted upon immediate action. His speech was greeted with applause by the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa men. The speaker urged that the movement be inaugurated in the middle western states represented, and to let the eastern states fall into line. In his opinion the middle western states are where the battle in November will be fought and decided.

Mr. Knott rather sharply "turned down" ex-Secretary Whitney by warning those present not to follow precisely in that leader's steps, as during the day he had sent out an address advising all gold Democrats to vote for McKinley.

Judge Moran pleaded for immediate action. He also favored the selection of Chicago as the city in which to hold the convention. In the course of his remarks he said: "The time for talking has passed. Let us act."

THEY TELL HOW SURE THEY ARE TO WIN.

HONOR OF THE NATION.

McKinley Makes a Speech to Alliance Workingmen.

Alliance, Ohio, July 24.—Major McKinley on Thursday attended and took part in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Mount Union college, of which he is one of the trustees, having come from Cleveland for that purpose. The principal address was delivered by Mr. McKinley.

At the railway station, as Mr. McKinley was about to take the train for Cleveland, an immense assemblage called for a speech. In response Mr. McKinley referred to the object of his visit to Alliance, and said:

"What we all want—no matter to what political organization we may have belonged in the past—is a return to the good times of years ago. We want good prices and good wages, and when we have them we want them to be paid in good money. Whether our prices be high, or whether they be low, whether our wages be good, or whether they be bad, they are all the better by being paid in dollars worth 100 cents each. And, my fellow citizens, what we want more than anything else is to keep our money equal to that of the most enlightened nations of the earth, and maintain the credit and honor of the government of the United States."

Governor McKinley then returned to Cleveland.

Member of County Committee—W. W. Clarke.

A temperance meeting was held Sunday evening in the Congregational church, at which Rev. G. W. Burdick, of Milton Junction, in his address, referred to the contempt and indifference on the part of the better elements of society, and particularly of the church, which he thought grew out of familiarity with the drink traffic, and the failure to realize the obligation resting on the church to mitigate any existing evil. The pastor, in his address, spoke of the success of the drink evil in perpetrating itself because it sought for the conditions which would secure success as the reform elements did not. The existing conditions were supposed to have in the town, in the absence of regularly licensed saloons, but he cited an instance of his own personal observation which proved that the excise law was being violated and that intoxicants could be secured. This obtained because the internal conditions were lacking—in the absence of wisdom in enforcing—the law and indifference in the matter of arousing public sentiment. In closing he remarked that the moral elements of society had but to determine to succeed in enforcing the law, and rally to the effort and the victory was sure. Among the people from this locality who are in camp at the Monona assembly are: Mesdames J. M. Marquart, K. Killam, E. B. Newton, W. Winch and M. J. Plumb; Rev. G. R. Chambers and family, Miss Kittie Douglass, Prof. P. L. Clarke and wife, J. W. Wheeler and wife, James Vincent and wife. Mrs. George Bacon is quite ill. Superintendent D. Turone was in the village Wednesday. Mrs. Comstock of Albany is visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Borden. The Richmond and Hudson elder press began operations this week. Miss Della Bowers of Lima, was a visitor in town this week. Miss Kate Mills of Cold Spring, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clem W. Crumb. Miss Myra James of Berlin, is enjoying a visit with friends in this vicinity. Miss Smith of Green Bay, is visiting Miss A. A. Reynolds. Mrs. E. H. Gifford of Janesville, was a Milton visitor Wednesday. President Whitford is spending the week in Chicago. Miss Mary McEwan is a late addition to the ranks of the bicyclists. Mrs. W. A. Waterman and son, Charles, of Newell, Iowa, are being entertained at E. H. Waterman's. Rev. Dr. Platt will preach at the Congregational church tomorrow (Sunday) morning. Mrs. G. S. Burdick was given a surprise party on the occasion of her sixty-seventh birthday, which occurred Tuesday. Edward Home, of West Duluth, is spending his vacation with Milton relatives. John M. Lane and wife, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane. Mr. Eager and Mrs. A. O. Thorpe, of Evansville, were in town Tuesday. Mr. Eager is a candidate for the Assembly in this district. Dr. Elsie R. Schmitz who has been a patient at the Penneyer Sanitarium, Kenosha, for some months has returned in improved health. The Ladies' Benevolent society of the S. D. B. church will give a lawn social at the home of Dr. Ella Orandall, Thursday evening, July 30. Ice cream will be served from 7 to 9 o'clock. Come everybody and help a good cause. The ladies of the W. R. C., after the close of their meeting this week, gave Miss A. Davidson a pleasant surprise by adjourning to her home for an informal supper, each lady contributing to the same. This is the third of this kind of suppers given by the ladies this season. Their object is to visit all members who for various reasons cannot regularly attend the meeting of the corps.

Root—Holmes.

Milton, July 24.—A very pretty home wedding took place in this village Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Holmes, when their eldest daughter, Helen, was united in marriage to Francis A. Root. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. George R. Chambers, and the bride and groom were attended by Miss Nettie Spaulding and D. A. Holmes. After the hundred and more guests had tendered their congratulations all were seated and the wedding supper was served, the menu being an elaborate one. The array of presents, testifying to the regard and esteem in which the happy couple are held, was very large, and included many costly and beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Root will make this place their home, although Mr. Root will retain his position at Clinton, and their innumerable friends unite in wishing them a future of unalloyed happiness and prosperity. Among those present from out of town were D. A. Holmes, of Highland Park, Ill.; Mrs. E. J. Blackwood, of Appleton; Mr. J. R. Wilkins and Mrs. Albert Wilkins, of Allen's Grove; Major Allen and wife, of Madison; Mrs. Dr. Johnson, of Darien; Mrs. Mary B. Burrows, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Albert Waterman, of Newell, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Root, Miss Rebecca Root, Master Dewey Root, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Root, of Whitewater; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Holmes, of Clinton, and Mrs. David Brown and Miss Kittie Wood, of Janesville.

THE ARMY WORMS AT CENTER

Pests are thick in some places—Other News Notes.

Center, July 25.—Fred Vankirk forwarded a sample box of army worms to Prof. Henry asking for information and received prompt reply and instructions, but most of the grain in this section had been cut before their appearance. They have done some damage, even in the shock. On the "Cal Crow" farm they come through the thresher with the grain in some cases they have gone into the early corn. The Christian Endeavor Society are making extensive preparations for a "Birthday Fete" at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Vankirk, next Wednesday night, young and old are invited. The older the better for C. E. society. Miss Otto Long and Fred Schroeder can now boast of the best threshing crew in the county, there being four old hands at it. Fred Vankirk has added a new line of novelties to his already large stock. John H. Fisher lost a valuable cult this week from inflammation. At the present low prices of butter, Mr. Carlson is giving the Center patrons all there is in it, as at Elgin prices the patrons received almost full price for June. Grant Fisher is at home in his new house. Very few of the Center sports attended the races this week, as money is too scarce. Stacking and getting ready for threshers is the order of the day here. Oats have not run out as heavy as the stand would indicate. Corn is a fine show in most localities and is well advanced. The tobacco acreage has been cut down a great deal, and the late rain will do it a great deal of good. Every young man, as well as the older ones, can afford to join the McKinley club next Monday night at the town hall, and thereby insure hearing some good instruction this fall in national politics. The crop of "expectant politicians" is the best on record, and the woods are full of them—almost as full, as the oats are of army worms.

FROST AT EMERALD GROVE JULY 16

No Damage Was Done, Although Jack Left His Finger Marks.

Emerald Grove, July 24.—On the morning of July 16, frost was seen in some places. It was not cold enough to do any damage, but still it left its finger marks on tender vegetation. Mrs. Levi Spear and daughter Cora, of Janesville, are in the vicinity, calling on friends. A good soaking rain fell Thursday afternoon and evening. The fruit jar season is at hand. Gillies & Jones can give you some low prices on one-quart jars. Very few people from here attended the races in Janesville this week. Will A. Dean has some corn that will measure eleven feet tall, making a growth of about two inches per day since planting. A young gentleman just over the county line has a well trained road team. The other evening they took his best girl home, some ten miles, without doing any damage, after throwing him out by the roadside. The time made was not noted, owing to the general excitement. Mrs. James Turner and sister Edna of Delavan, visited at E. N. Ransom's last week. Everybody is busy stacking or threshing these days. Grain is yielding some better than a year ago. Miss Lizzie Gillies and Miss Cora Morgan of Evansville, are spending the week with friends in the village.

New Depot at Clinton Junction.

Clinton, July 24.—The new depot, which is soon to take the place of the one recently burned, was stacked out yesterday. It is to be built of brick, twenty feet high, with a bay window, cupola front, and is to be thirty-eight feet long. It will contain two ticket offices, two waiting rooms and two baggage and express offices. It will have a late roof and be a very neat structure.

WHAT 16 TO 1 MEANS.

A Brief Explanation of the Phrase Now On Every One's Tongue.

Sixteen to one means, in practice, that 16 ounces of silver shall be held as worth as much as one ounce of gold.

One ounce of gold, American coin standard of fineness (that is, 900 parts of pure gold to 100 of alloy) will coin in gold dollars, $18.60. Sixteen ounces of silver, American coin standard of fineness (that is, 900 parts of pure silver to 100 of alloy,) at the rate of 412½ grains to the dollar (the weight of the present standard silver dollar,) will coin $18.60 in silver dollars.

These 16 ounces of silver can be bought in the markets of the world today for $9.94.

There would, therefore, be a profit of $8.66 on an investment of $9.94, being about 87 per cent, if a holder of silver could take it to the mint and coin it without charge into silver dollars.

The advocates of free coinage favor a law that will allow any holder of silver bullion, to have the right to take the same to any mint of the United States and convert it into silver coin free of charge.

WAS THE VILLAGE SET OFF LEGALLY?

CLINTON FRIGHTENED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

Saloon Licenses Held Back—Judgment Just Rendered in the Wauwatosa Case Makes It Seem Probable That Chapter 203, Revised Statutes, Will Be Set Aside.

It touches Rock county very closely—that decision of the supreme court on the incorporation of villages.

Such a thing as Clinton village may not exist.

Holders of Clinton village bonds find the prospect very entertaining.

Clinton saloon men get no licenses until the question is decided.

The case turns on the power of a circuit court to grant legislative powers. The supreme court holds that such powers can be conveyed by the legislature only.

The case in point concerns the village of Wauwatosa, but Clinton's situation is believed to be precisely the same.

Can a Court Incorporate Villages? Clinton was incorporated by an order from Judge Bennett in 1881.

By virtue of that incorporation all the functions of a village, such as the providing of waterworks, the licensing of saloons, the incurring of debts and the issuing of bonds have been performed. If the incorporation was illegal there would seem to be no basis for any of these acts.

So the village trustees think.

They have decided to issue no saloon licenses as long as the matter is open. The town of Clinton is dry, and Clinton village is licensed by a small majority only. A reversion to town government, therefore, would make no license the rule. Trustees do not feel like incurring responsibility by receiving money for saloon permits.

Village Bonds Are Affected.

As said before, however, the liquor question is but one part, and a small part at that, of Clinton's trouble. The bonds and water works and things of a financial sort oppress villages most.

They have the consolation of knowing that half the villages in the state are in the same boat. When the legislature decreed in 1880 that villages could be incorporated by an order of the circuit court instead of waiting for the long process of legislative enactment many communities took advantage of the opportunity. They are all oppressed just at present with fears for their legal standing.

District Attorney Jackson has been consulted by Clinton authorities as to the proper action regarding the granting of licenses. As the supreme court's opinion in the Wauwatosa case has not been published in full, however, nothing definite can be done. It is expected that the opinion will be given out in the Northwestern Court Reporter this week.

How the Law Reads.

The chapter under which Clinton and so many other villages were organized, is as follows.

Any town or town or towns not less than one-half square mile in area and not included in any village, and all lying in the same county, which shall contain a resident population of not less than three hundred persons thereon, or any part of any town or towns not less than one mile square and not included in any village, and lying in two adjoining counties, and which shall contain a resident population of at least four hundred persons to every square mile thereof, may, upon compliance with the conditions of this chapter, become incorporated as a village by such name as may be designated in the order of the court for its incorporation, with the ordinary powers of a municipal corporation and such as are conferred by these statutes.

A Cure for Irregularities.

Chapter 92 of the laws of 1881 provided that villages could not be more than one-half a square mile in extent and statutes of 1873 and earlier limited the privilege of incorporation to territory in the same county. As if to legalize incorporations that might transgress on these points the legislature in 1887 passed a law—Chapter 211, revised statutes—that reads:

All villages heretofore incorporated under the provisions of Section 854 of the revised statutes as amended by Chapter 203 of the laws of 1880, are hereby declared to be duly and legally incorporated as such villages, notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 92 of the laws of 1881; and all the official acts of the president and trustees, and all of the official acts of the police justices and other officers of any village heretofore organized, and lying in two adjoining counties and that have complied with the provisions of Chapter 203 of the laws of 1880, are hereby declared to be legal and valid.

More Than a Question of Words.

The apparent intention of the legislature was to straighten out one or two little kinks in the law itself—to provide that villages might retain their corporate form, even though the legal requirements had not all been complied with. The question that bothers attorneys is, whether in framing the remedial section, the legislature made it broad enough to save villages incorporated under a law that the supreme court now pronounces unconstitutional.

Clinton people are drawing short breaths and waiting for the decision.

THE PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT.

Department Commander Jones sends the following complimentary note to E. E. Kimberley:

MY DEAR COMRADE: Permit me to add my testimony to that of so many others in praise of Wisconsin's best soldier singer. With such a powerful voice as you possess, rich and perfect in its tones, you exert an influence over an audience, which but few, if any of the country's best orators can achieve.

WINANS WITH THE SILVERITES.

He is Not With "Cleveland and His Blind Isolators."

John Winans writes to the Milwaukee Journal that he will support Bryan and free silver. He drags in as justification for such an abrupt change of front his fear of "the restoration of the McKinley law," a thing that nobody in any party has any thought of and that is not favored in any state or national platform. Mr. Winans writes:

JANESVILLE, Wis., July 17.—The gold standard men were fairly beaten in the convention by a two-thirds majority and should acquiesce. It looks as if a small minority were acting upon the policy that if they could not rule, then they would try to ruin. For such men the mass of the people have but little respect. Let them do as did Horace Greely some years ago—split upon the platform, but, as loyal democrats, support the ticket. Free silver coinage at the present ratio, in my judgment, is less to be deplored than the restoration of the McKinley tariff. I shall support the ticket, Cleveland and his small band of blind isolators to the contrary, notwithstanding. JOHN WINANS.

ECHOES OF THE DAY IN TOWN

LEAF MARKET QUIET BUT OUTLOOK GOOD

FAIR DEMAND FOR OLD GOODS REPORTED.

Some Riding is Being Done in Search of Fillers and Low Grade Weed—Growing Fields Are Doing Well, and Topping is Under Way—Tobacco Gossip.

Local tobacco market conditions remain unchanged in nearly all lines, except there is considerable riding after fillers and low grades, and there seems to be a goodly quantity of these goods picked up, says the Janesville Leaf. There is a fair demand for old tobaccos of all kinds, but holders do not care to accept prices offered. A more hopeful feeling seems to prevail regarding the future business prospects with some, while others look at the outlook through azure colored glasses.

Among the transactions reported are 107 cases of '92 and '93 sold by G. H. Rumrill; 105 cases sold by J. L. & M. F. Greene and Rudolph, Haviland & Son sold 300 cases of old tobacco. S. B. Heddles sold 85 cases of '93 and '95.

The growing crop continues to do well and topping is becoming more general. Rain is needed very much as the earlier set fields show some disposition to spindly, but nothing serious will occur unless dry weather continues for some time.

Some More Leaf Notes.

Three hundred cases of tobacco were shipped by Rudolph, Haviland & Son last week.

J. L. & M. F. Green shipped a car of leaf from Albany, Milton and Janesville recently.

C. A. Blanchard, the hustling agent of the Industrial Cigar Co., is sending in some very good orders for the popular brands of that company.

The enterprising firm of Rudolph, Haviland & Son, are putting in two sweet rooms in their warehouse, 118 North Main street, one having a temperature of 200 degrees. This will give them an opportunity to prepare any partially sweated tobacco for market. We are pleased to note that this firm is doing a good business.

WOOD-JERSEY COMPANY'S PLAYS

Combination Given Excellent Satisfaction At the Myers Grand.

The Wood-Jersey Company's Janesville engagement has been an exceptionally satisfactory one, and the combination is one of the best popular priced companies that has been here. The parts are all well taken, and the audiences have been well pleased. "Yankee Jack; or Slavery Days in Cuba" was last night's bill, and tonight they play "Father and Son."

Store Room.

We have a nice dry store room for household goods or merchandise of any kind. Lowell Hardware Co.

OXFORD's must go. Read our ad tonight for particulars. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

A card on the outside of office door says:

"Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And, the man will be there on time.

That is, for some days, weeks or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll feel too miserable to move. The man was probably two or three ten-minute lunches condensed.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heart-burn," or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little "Pellets" will not cure. They cure permanently.

Elevated Back Yards.

Some of the second floor dwellers of Tremont enjoy advantages of which the occupants of the first floors are deprived.

In many parts of that district the dwelling houses are built adjoining. Some of these houses are erected after the cheapest plans possible, and in many instances the owners refuse to bear the expense of having the hills behind them cut down.

By this fact the occupants of the first floor are deprived of yard advantages, while those on the second and often on the third and fourth floors have them.

It is not an uncommon thing there for an occupant of the first floor to ask the occupant of the second or third: "May I hang my clothes in your backyard?"—New York Herald.

HOT WEATHER DYSPEPSIA.

Thousands Suffer From It at This Season of the Year.

Hot weather dyspepsia may be recognized by the following symptoms: Depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, loss of flesh and appetite, no desire for food, bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning, wind in stomach and bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness, weariness, costiveness, headache, palpitation, heartburn. It is a mistake to treat such troubles with "tonics," "blood purifiers," "cathartics," "pills," because the whole trouble is in the stomach. It is indigestion or dyspepsia and nothing else.

All these symptoms rapidly disappear when the stomach is relieved, strengthened, and cleansed by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They should be taken after meals and a few carried in the pocket to be used whenever any pain or distress is felt in the stomach. They are prepared only for stomach troubles. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are endorsed by such physicians as Dr. Harlandson, Dr. Jennison, and Dr. Mayer, because they contain the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which when taken into the stomach cause the prompt digestion of the food before it has time to ferment and sour, which is the cause of the mischief.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are pleasant to take and unequalled for invalids, children and every person afflicted with imperfect digestion. It is safe to say they will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Nearly all the druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages at 50 cents. A book on stomach troubles, and thousands of testimonials sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

HIP WING ON A SPREE.

Chinaman Under Inspiration of Rice
Gin Adds Spice to Life.

A drunken Chinaman is not frequent spectacle, even in New York, where all sorts of men and most kinds of "drunks" are common enough, says the New York Herald. But one day last week the corner of Broadway and Duane street was distinguished by such an apparition.

Hip Wing, or some other old Wing, was the culprit. He had taken on a heavy cargo of rice gin and had beaten out of Pell street in the teeth of head winds. As he made his way down Center street he had a heavy list to port, but by close sailing kept off his beam ends.

Rice gin is a truly celestial liquor. After the third or fourth drink of it a white man feels a feverish and fiendish desire to kick a sick baby or maul a consumptive with a dull ax. Not so the Chinaman. The more he drinks of rice gin the happier he gets. After two noggins he hears the rustling of paradisaical wings. A little later he can come out in the middle of the street and pick roses and lilies of the valley and eglantine. Thereafter all is a vapor of bliss.

Hip was in the third heaven by the time he turned into Duane street. He had already cast a shoe, but no matter. His beady eyes were snapping. Newsboys reviled him, but he didn't even tell them molokai. Metaphysical posies grew out of the sleeves of his blouse.

The street was full of common, everyday, busy, sober people, and some of them jostled and gazed at him. He never felt or heard them. His feet were on the pavement, but his head was in the clouds.

There was a policeman midway in the block and he gave Hip the indurated wooden face, but Hip gave back a smile of such beatific calm that the "collar man" almost smiled.

"You hab drink? Me plenty cash."

Of course the policeman wouldn't—it was broad daylight—but Hip didn't care.

After all Hip would probably have been arrested like a common Caucasian "drunk" if two of his countrymen had not just at this moment turned into the street. They seemed to be men in authority; one of them might even have been a deacon in the joss house. They knew the policeman and he seemed to know them. At least he suffered them to take Hip between them and start him back toward Chinatown.

But as he went a bright light as of celestial posies seemed to fade out of the air, and the street which had been glorified by a celestial dream of bliss became once more prosy and commonplace.

A Long Journey by Dog Sleigh.

George Ecker of the state harbor police has returned from a sojourn of about three months' duration in the vicinity of Juneau, Alaska. Ecker states that he did not visit Cook's inlet, but is inclined to doubt the reports prevalent as to the deprivations undergone by miners. "As far as Juneau is concerned," he said, "everything is booming and much money is being made." He tells an interesting story relative to the experience of two women in the wilds of the Yukon district.

Fred Berry, an adventurous spirit who joined the restless throng that visited the gold fields about six months ago, having made quite a snug fortune recently returned to Fresno and was married to a charming young lady of that section. The couple then proceeded to one of the trading posts on the Yukon attainable by boats, then procured a sleigh and the requisite number of dogs to make a journey of about 2,000 miles inland, to where Berry had his claim. Before they started Mr. and Mrs. Berry were joined by another lady, whose name Ecker has forgotten, and the trio started to traverse the frozen ice fields. The trip is full of hardships and none but a most determined person would attempt it.—San Francisco Post.

Brotherhood.

The two words "masses" and "classes" invite prejudicial comparisons to all relations of brotherhood, friendship and health. Men are men; we might as well blot the name of God from the world and batter down his throne as to insinuate there can be any other condition than the universal brotherhood of man.—John S. Lyon.

AN UNPLEDGED DELEGATION.

Rock county's vote will be important in the state convention. It may be a power for good or for evil—for factional triumph or for knitting together all parts of the republican fabric.

The greatest good seems likely to be achieved by sending a delegation unpledged and uninstructed, but ready to act as the situation requires. There will be many instructed delegations on the floor. From them little will be expected. In the nature of things their work must be to advance the interests of individual candidates. On Rock, with a delegation free from allegiance to any cause, unbiased by any considerations save those of party welfare and honor, heavy responsibility rests. So important a contingency has not presented itself in fifteen years. Republicans of the county should prepare for it by sending to Milwaukee their best men and leaving them to do the right thing at the right time.

HONEST SILVER MEN.

Here and there a silver man is found who is not a repudiator. He says nobody will get a chance to pay debts with dollars bought at fifty-three cents because the minute this begins the silver in a dollar will increase in value to 100 cents. In this case people will be paying their debts with silver worth 100 cents on the dollar. They can do this today without any trouble whatever and without tearing to pieces the financial fabric of the country.

"The democrats of New York declare their willingness to withhold their views on all questions not rendered imperative by the imperiled condition of the country." This was the declaration adopted in 1862. It will serve as a model for many democratic declarations—spoken and unspoken—in this year of danger to the country's financial honor.

The more changes in the currency the more profit to capitalists. The "cheapest" dollars the country ever had were the state bank notes. Rich men juggled with them and profited by their ups and downs, but poor men who had to take them in pay for work lost with each fluctuation.

The fifty-cent silver dollar would be of advantage to few persons in the long run, save the speculators who would gamble on the inevitable fluctuations in its purchasing power and in the price of commodities.

A reduction of fifty per cent in wages would cause a strike in any factory in the country. Isn't Mr. Bryan's plan of paying a fifty-cent silver piece where a dollar in gold is paid today, about the same thing?

The campaign is only two weeks old and silver men have been reduced to the single argument that free coinage would help people to dodge part of their debts.

People who work for wages, oppose free coinage—they can't see why they should get a fifty-cent dollar for work that earns a one hundred-cent dollar today.

Some people get free silver and free lunch mixed observes, Editor Chapple of the Ashland Press.

Gold Reserve at $102,000,000.

New York, July 24.—Including the deposits made Thursday the banks of this city have deposited in the sub-treasury $15,255,000 in gold. Washington advices yesterday said that the gold reserve at the beginning of business Friday (Thursday's total withdrawal of $2,776,500 deducted) amounted to $86,830,528. The gold reserve, with the $15,255,000 deposits added, amounted to $102,000,000.

Michigan Gold Democrats.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 24.—The gold democrats have issued a manifesto denouncing the recent Chicago convention platform and ticket as undemocratic and unpatriotic, and declaring that "We shall not vote for it." The manifesto calls for the nomination of a ticket which democrats can honorably support and vote for, and invites all Michigan democrats who believe as they do to organize and to communicate with John S. Lawrence, secretary of the local organization, which has been effected. The manifesto is signed by nearly 100 well-known democrats.

Adopt American Naval Idea.

TRACK RECORD CUT BY GOV. STRONG

THE TROTTING RACE RECORD DROPS TO 2:11 1-4

Abner Attracts Attention in the 2:12 Race, and Wins the First Heat Very Handily—Afterward the Rock County Colors Go Down—Track Notes.

The harness horses raced on a fast track this afternoon, the rain having improved the course rather than injured it. The card today was made up of three races that were to have come off yesterday—the class for 2:12 trotters, the class for 2:16 trotters and the class for pacing three year olds. The announcement that Happy Jack, the pacer, would go an exhibition mile had its effect, and the attendance was the largest of the week.

When the sun came out this morning, there was great rejoicing among the horsemen, all of whom were anxious to "get a chance to win some money." Many predicted yesterday that "a spell of weather had set in," and were fearful that the balance of the races would have to be declared off. The idea was not a pleasing one, as the horsemen had already lost one week because of the failure of the Lake Geneva meeting and they are anxious, therefore, to make up for lost time. The rain simply did what the association had been trying to do—wet down the track—and the dust clouds that had been in evidence regardless of the steady use of the sprinkling carts were absent today.

Three Good Races.

The three races on the card were good ones. The first one was the 2:12 trotting class, with Selma F, Miss Nelson, Abner, Pileta, Russellmont, Bertie R. and Queen Alfred named to start. Pileta was the favorite, selling for $10. Miss Nelson brought $6, while the field could be had for $4.

In the 2:16 class trotting event there were six named on the card, they being Kate F., Maud Wright, Snowden, Zero, Delmont and Governor Strong. Governor Strong was the favorite, selling for $50 even money against the field. The others selling on the same race were Governor Strong $10, Delmont, $8, Maud Wright $6 and the field $2.

In the colt race there were seven scheduled to start, they being Hazel Hurd, Wanetah, Josie Ray, Harbor, Dorothy, Prince Annanias, and J. D. Prince Annanias was the choice, selling for $10 against the field, even money.

Some of the horses named did not start, but the starters, and the results of the races up to 4:30 o'clock were as follows:

BOTTLE OF VITRIOL THROWN OVER HER

MRS. FRANK BLUNK BURNED VERY SEVERELY.

She Was Shaking a Mixture of Spirits of Turpentine and Sulphuric Acid, and the Bottle Exploded in Her Hand, Throwing the Corrosive Fluid in Every Direction.

Serious injuries were inflicted on Mrs. Frank Blunk, of Afton, by the explosion of a bottle of oil of vitriol and turpentine.

As the mixture began to fume and seethe, she ran to the door. She was too late to throw the bottle outside, and it burst, throwing acid in every direction.

Mrs. Blunk was mixing some liniment to use on a horse. Vitriol and turpentine form a remedy often used for treating granulated flesh. Mrs. Blunk had seen the mixture made, with no bad results.

"The folks at home often mixed up a bottle," she explained to Dr. James Mills, who was called to Afton to care for her. "I never knew any harm to come from it."

Mrs. Blunk poured the spirits of turpentine into a big bottle, and added the oil of vitriol. She corked the bottle firmly and shook it. There was a settling and fuming inside that increased with each moment. The cork began to burn. Mrs. Blunk was alarmed and ran to the door. Just before she reached the threshold to toss the bottle into the yard there was an explosion. Broken glass flew about and Mrs. Blunk screamed with pain. Her right hand was covered with the acid and her face showed streaks of it. Wherever it touched it ate into the flesh.

Others in the house hurried to Mrs. Blunk's aid, applied oil and bandages and did all that was possible to relieve her pain until Dr. Mills came. Her hand and face were burned severely and wherever the acid had touched her dress the cloth had been eaten away. The burns on her face showed that her escape from being blinded had been a narrow one.

BIG PICNIC MAY GO TO PEWAUKEE

Special Meeting of Sunday School Workers to Be Held Tonight

At a special meeting this evening it will be settled whether the big union church picnic shall be held in Madison or on the shores of Pewaukee lake. I. F. Wortendyke and Frank Spoon returned home last evening, from a visit to Pewaukee and are loud in praise of this resort. The only objection is the extra railroad fare. In order to reach the lake passengers would be transferred at Waukesha from the C. M. & St. P. cars to the new electric road. This extra luxury costs $9 a car. The managers think it will take twelve cars to carry the Janesville crowd, which means an additional outlay of $108.

W. E. Clinton was in Madison today to see what could be done with the Monona management. To either Madison or Waukesha the railroad will make a rate somewhat lower than half fare.

SPECIAL PRIZE FOR WHEELMEN.

Dr. James Mills Receives Word of William Horlick's Offer.

Dr. James Mills received from William Horlick, of Racine, today, a letter of thanks for an invitation to the Caledonian games, and the offer of a special prize for wheelmen. The prize will be a gold medal, a special leather bicycle case and flask filled with malted milk tablets and an extra large jar of tablets for refilling the flask. The value of the prize will be $15. Mr. Horlick will bring a party of Racine friends to see the games.

NEW SIDEWALKS FOR Y. M. C. A

Cinders on High Street But Cement on Milwaukee Street

Work was commenced this morning on the new Y. M. C. A. sidewalk. In place of a cement walk on High street the association, and the public as well will have to be contented for the present at least with cinders taken from the railroad yards. On Milwaukee street a cement walk will be laid if $60 can be raised.

DIVORCE FOR MRS. NELLIE CARR

she Testified that Her Husband Had Not Supported Her.

In the circuit court this morning Judge Bennett granted a divorce to Nellie Carr from her husband Clarence Carr on the grounds of failure to support. Both parties live in Beloit. The defendant failed to put in an appearance and the plaintiff was given control of the children.

Louis Hermsdorff Hose For 33 Cents, Tomorrow.

Tomorrow, Saturday, we offer 2,000 pair of Louis Hermsdorff black 50c hose at 33c—a reduction of 17c a pair, and thereby a cash saving to you. We don't ask you to pay full price for the goods and throw you in a chromo, but make you a present, you might say, of 17c on every pair purchased. Tomorrow you can purchase hose at low figures all the way through the stock but positively no chromos.

A MILWAUKEE MAN CAUGHT FOR $42

A BICYCLE SUNDRY DEALER MEETS DICE SHARKERS.

Then He Complained to Chief of Police Acheson, and the Man Who Got the Cash Was Compelled To Disgorge, After Being Taken to the County Bastile.

F. N. Huennekens, a Milwaukee business man, caused the arrest of a stranger last night, charging that the man had beaten him out of $42 by means of a dice game.

Mr. Huennekens is engaged in the wholesale bicycle sundry business at 255 Lake street, Milwaukee. It is the custom of Mr. Huennekens and his son to take a bicycle trip through the state every summer, and this year they thought they would attend the Janesville races. They arrived in the city Wednesday, and are quartered at the Hotel Myers. While wandering about the city on Wednesday evening, Mr. Huennekens met a "fine looking man."

Later, he saw his chance acquaintance win $50 at a dice game, so Mr. Huennekens tried his luck, losing $42. He then informed Chief Acheson who soon found the man and landed him in jail. His partner soon produced the $42 however, and Mr. Huennekens asked that the prisoner be given his liberty.

Mr. Huennekens, who is a gray haired man, said that he thought he had quit being a sucker twenty years ago.

Every effort was made to keep the affair a secret, but the facts finally leaked out.

MILK GOES UP A CENT A QUART

Local Dealers Raise the Price as the Pasturage Falls.

Janesville milk men—or most of them, at least—raised the price another cent today. Four cents a quart they charge and say there is none too much profit at that. Pasturage gets poorer as the summer advances and the margin on milk is scant. This does not refer to the yellow margin at the top of the pan. Twenty of the Janesville wagons were represented at a meeting held in the municipal court room last night, when the advance in price was agreed upon.

He Knows How to Fly.

Professor Langley, secretary of the Smithsonian institution, is said to have made an airship that will fly. He calls it an aerodrome, and it has been successfully tested. Professor Langley is not a crank, but a scientific inventor who has accomplished much that is wonderful. Professor Langley was born in Roxbury, Mass., in 1834. He was graduated from the Boston Latin school and from that time to this has devoted himself to science. As a mere child he showed a fondness for astronomy and road with great interest and precocious understanding all the books that he could find on the subject. In 1865 he entered Harvard observatory as an assistant. Soon after he accepted a position on the academic staff of the naval college at Annapolis. In 1867 Professor Langley was invited to take charge of the Alleghany observatory at Western university in Pittsburgh. He remained there 20 years. In 1887 he was chosen to succeed Professor Baird, deceased, as secretary of the Smithsonian institution.

Chaplain McCabe a Bishop.

The Rev. Charles C. McCabe, one of the new Methodist bishops, has long been a prominent figure in Methodism. He is popularly and widely known as Chaplain McCabe. He was born in Athens, O., Oct. 11, 1836. He was converted at the age of 8 years and was educated at the Ohio Wesleyan university. He entered the Ohio conference and was pastor of a church at Putnam when the war broke out. He left his pulpit and went to the front as chaplain of the One Hundred and Twenty-second Ohio volunteer infantry. He accompanied his regiment to Virginia, and in June, 1863, he was captured while ministering to the wounded on the battlefield of Winchester. For four months he was confined in Libby prison, where he shared the same wretched fate as hundreds of other Union prisoners. At the close of the war Chaplain McCabe was given a pastoral appointment at Portsmouth, O., but in 1868 he was made secretary of the board of church extension.

He Declined a Degree.

Because the University of Toronto conferred the honorary degree of LL. D. on Professor Goldwin Smith Mr. W. G. Falconbridge of the Ontario high court of justice resigned his seat in the senate or governing board of that institution. He was succeeded by Colonel George T. Denison, a police magistrate of Toronto, who echoed his indignation and requested that his name be struck from the list of graduates of the university. When Professor Smith heard of all this, he wrote to the senate of the university declining the proffered degree, and peace again reigns in Toronto. Goldwin Smith is undoubtedly one of the foremost scholars and strongest writers of the day on subjects of political and current interest. His views are broad and his opinions liberal, and it is largely due to this fact that he lacks popularity. He was not liked in England because he advocated the emancipation of the English colonies, and Canadians dislike him because he is a champion of annexation to the United States. Professor Smith was born in England 73 years ago, but now lives in Toronto.

Harvest Excursions

In order to give everyone an opportunity to see the grand crops in the western states and enable the intending settler to secure a home, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y has arranged to run a series of harvest excursions to South and North Dakota and to other states in the west, northwest and southwest on the following dates: July 31, August 4 and 18, September 1, 15, 29 and October 6 and 20 at the low rate of two dollars more than one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be good for return on any Tuesday or Friday within twentyone days from date of sale. For rates, time of trains and further details apply to any ticket agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y.

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief. It kills pain. C. D. Stevens.

Low Rate to Freeport.

On account of the races, the Northwestern line will, from July 28 to 31, inclusive, sell excursion tickets to Freeport and return at very low rates, good returning until August 1, 1896. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious liver troubles that follow neglected colds. C. D. Stevens.

Races at Waukegan.

On account of the Waukegan Trotting Association Races, the Northwestern Line will, from July 27 to 31, sell excursion tickets to Waukegan and return at very low rates, tickets good to return until August 1, 1896, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

Eli Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes: "I have been suffering from piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used. C. D. Stevens

Half Rates to Salt Lake, Utah.

On account of the Annual Convention International Association of Fire Engineers, the Northwestern line, will on August 6 and 7, sell excursion tickets to Salt Lake City and return at one fare, plus $2, for the round trip. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they become inflamed. DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure subdues inflammation at once and completely removes the difficulty. C. D. Stevens.

Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. C. D. Stevens.

Monona Lake Assembly.

For the Monona Lake Assembly, at Madison, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell excursion tickets at a fare and a third for the round trip from July 20 to 31, inclusive, good for return until August 1. All trains stop at the grounds.

Fast Train for Devil's Lake.

Leaves Jamesville 4:05 p. m. every Saturday and arrives at Devil's Lake at 6:20 p. m. Returning leaves Devil's Lake every Monday at 6:16 a. m. and arrives at Jamesville at 9:35 a. m. For reduced rate excursion tickets apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

About the Dells of the Wisconsin.

Parties of ten or more going to and returning from the Dells of Wisconsin in a body, may make the trip at half fare, with fifty cents added for each person for steamer coupon, any day from June 5 to September 30. Tickets good for three days. Every Friday and Saturday tickets will be sold at a fare and a third with fifty cents added for steamer for round trip, to any number good for return until Monday. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

Small in size but great in results, DeWitt's Little Early Risers act gently but thoroughly, curing indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation. Small pill, safe pill, best pill. C. D. Stevens.

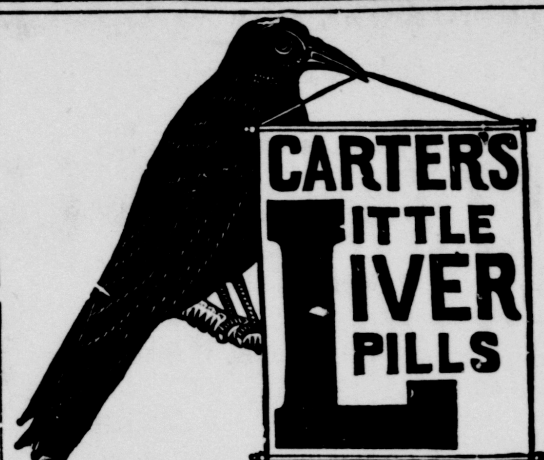

"Wake up, Jacob, day is breaking!" So said DeWitt's Little Early Risers to the man who had taken them to arouse the sluggish liver. C. D. Stevens.

For the Milwaukee Races.

Excursion tickets will be sold at low rates via the Northwestern line every Wednesday and Saturday until July 25, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

Half Rates to Milwaukee.

On account of the National Convention Republican League, August 26 and 27, the Northwestern line will sell excursion tickets to Milwaukee and return at one fare for the round trip. For dates of sale and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

Common sense from an article by L. Tillotson, in the Western Druggist, of Chicago:—

"Always give prices. Nothing is so annoying to the average person reading an advertisement as to find that the article is just what is wanted and not told what it will cost. This is much more important in local advertising than it is in general advertising."

EXECUTION SALE.—By virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court for Rock County, Wisconsin, upon a judgment entered and docketed in said court on the 4th day of November, 1895, in an action in said court, where Rock County National bank, plaintiff, and Charles Davis and Cordelia Davis are defendants, I have levied upon and will sell at public auction to the highest bidder therefor, at the east front door of the post office in the city of Jamesville, Wisconsin, on Monday, the 11th day of September, 1896, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, all the right, title and interest which the defendant, Cordelia Davis, had on the 4th day of November, 1895, or which she has since acquired, in and to the following described real estate, situate in the town of Jamesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, namely:—

The northwest quarter of section eleven (11) and the southwest quarter of section two (2), town three (3) range twelve (12) east. Also that portion of the southeast quarter of said section two (2), town (3) range (12), described as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of the southeast quarter of said section two (2), running thence south on the west line of said quarter section fifteen (15) chains and fourteen (14) links; thence east on a line parallel to the north line of said quarter section, thirteen (13) chains and twenty and one-fourth (20 1/4) links; thence north on a line parallel to the west line of said quarter section, fifteen (15) chains and fourteen (14) links to the north line of said quarter section; thence west on the said north line thirteen (13) chains and twenty and one-fourth (20 1/4) links to the place of beginning, containing twenty (20) acres of land.

By virtue of said execution, I have also levied upon, as the property of the defendant, Charles Davis, and will sell at public auction to the highest bidder therefor at the same time and place mentioned above, the following described real estate, situate in the town of Jamesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, and described as follows:—

The west half of the northwest quarter, and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section eleven (11), town three (3) range twelve (12).

I will sell so much of the above described property, as may be necessary to satisfy said execution, with interest and costs of sale.

FROM HEAD TO FOOT.

Narrow Toed Shoes Versus So Called Common Sense Ones.

The newest hats are worn well down over the face, and a peculiarity of the season's styles is that every woman must have a hat made to suit her. The practice of buying ready made hats is entirely abandoned by a large contingent of well dressed women.

The usual efforts are being made to introduce novelties in gloves. While there is certain limited demand for extremes in color and styles, the popular glove for the best trade is plain and conservative and varies but very little from year to year.

Narrow toed shoes are to continue in fashion. Many people who objected to them at the outset find them exceedingly comfortable—indeed, quite as much so as the common sense shoes. Narrow toed shoes are made extra long, and with a well fitting instep are easy as well as fashionable. The actual common sense of the style of shoe thus named is rather questionable. The inventor seems to have constructed them on the theory that the foot, in its natural and proper conditions, has toes of equal size and length and no instep at all. Practically one might just as well be hurt by a pretty and fashionable shoe as by an ugly and clumsy one, and in the former case one's vanity at least is uninjured.

Shorter skirts are permissible for the street. Perhaps the growing popularity of bicycling has something to do with it. However, that may be, short skirts may be worn, and every woman who walks much is glad that she can be comfortable and yet be dressed in the mode. Long skirts, although much more graceful and dignified than short ones, are very untidy for the street and are soon defaced by contact with the ground, besides damaging the shoes more or less by rubbing grit and dirt over them.

A sketch is given of a traveling gown of beige cloth. The skirt is finished by rows of stitching around the foot, while on either side of the tablier is a stitched strap, terminating under a pearl button at the top. The sack, which is finished with stitching, has a sort of vest of beige silk covered with an application of ceruigature. The epaulets, pocket flaps and collar are also of guipure over silk. The sleeves have narrow frills of white gauze at the wrists. The hat of green straw is trimmed with violets and green tulle.

SILKS AND SATINS

India and Surah in Small Demand—The Style of Waists.

There is nothing in the entire range of fabrics for good wear that is so valuable to the woman of moderate means as a skirt of black satin. Get a good quality of this goods, an American satin of an honest make, and it will outwear almost anything that can be worn beside it. The woman who wants a great deal of good effect on a small capital buys a black satin skirt, then wears fancy waists of silk or thin materials for dress occasions.

One skirt with three or four waists will carry a woman through a whole season. There is but little change in the style of waists, a great deal of lace embroidery, ruffling, side plaiting and ribbon being employed in the make up and trimming. The coming season promises to be notable for the variety of silks. Curiously enough, surah and india silks are in little demand. It is scarcely remarkable that surah has dropped a little out of sight, for it is not a very manageable material. But that india silks should decline in popularity has surprised a great many persons who admire and appreciate this charming fabric. Except for waists, india silk is rarely called for. Grenadines are again coming into use, and when made up over silk and trimmed with lace they make lovely costumes.

An illustration is given of a costume of pompadour taffeta having a blue ground with black stripes and pink flowers. The close godet skirt is entirely plain. The close bodice is nearly covered with a fichu of puffed gauze of a blue shade edged with a full frill of white lace. The point of the fichu drops below the waist line at the back, while in front the lace frill extends in two long ends upon the skirt. The belt and choux are of blue gauze, the belt of black satin. Frills of white lace finish the wrists of the close sleeves that have a moderate puff at the top. The toque of yellow straw is trimmed with blue tulle and blueets.

What He Needed.

"You need a change of scene and air," said the physician, with the air of a man who knows what he is talking about.

"Thank you," returned the patient. "Would a trip to Winnipeg do me any good?"

"Certainly. A trip almost anywhere would do you good, and the sooner you start the better. Can you go at once?" "Why, yes," replied the patient. "You see I just stopped over in Chicago for a day or two on my way to Winnipeg from New Orleans. I live in Winnipeg, you know."

Then the doctor smiled in a sickly sort of way and said there would be no charge.—Chicago Post.

No Better Evidence Needed.

Customer—I don't know about buying any sausage this morning. I've got tired of always seeing a great, big, worthless dog hanging about here. It doesn't look just right for a meat market.

Butcher—You needn't be suspicious about my sausages, ma'am, unless you come in here some morning and find that dog missin'.—Chicago Tribune.

A Great Head.

B'Jones—That was a good scheme I worked on my neighbor Bugly last evening.

B'Jinks—What was that?

B'Jones—I got him into an argument about lawn mowing, and insisted he knew nothing about it; he got so excited that in order to prove his point he lit in and mowed my whole yard.—Town Topics.

Perils of Wealth.

Jinks—Every day I read in the papers about some great man being injured by smoking. The last one is the prince of Wales. The doctors have stopped him. Now I must say, as I am a smoker myself, such things trouble me.

Winks—Oh, don't worry. All those men are rich, and can afford to smoke real tobacco.—N. Y. Weekly.

Baldness Accounted For.

"What makes your whiskers thicker on the right side of your face?" asked Gilholy of Hostetter McGinnis.

"Oh, that comes from always sleeping on the left side of the face; that rubs away the hair."

"If that's the rule, I suppose these bald-headed men must sleep while standing on their heads."—Texas Sifter.

Strictly Truthful.

Marie—Jack, you told mamma a fib. You said that while you were in Monte Carlo you spent all your time bicycling, when I know positively that you were gambling at the Casino.

Jack—Bicycling? Who said anything about bicycling? I told her that I spent the most of my time on the wheel.—Town Topics.

Favorable Progress.

"Have you heard from your daughter since she started on her wedding tour? Is she happy?"

"Very much so. Only think, in Venice she commenced to hate her own way in everything, and ever since they left Rome she has carried the purse!"—Tit-Bits.

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY

"The art of painting," said Millais, "consists in selecting the right colors and putting them in the right place."

"The way to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to mass your troops at the critical moment against the weakest spot in the enemy's line."—"The way to cure many ailments," said the great Dr. Abercrombie, "is to purify the poisoned spring in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

Thus wisdom and experience simply add condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought, and finally found, a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this alone will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with confusing definitions? A good digestion is life and health; a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the healing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the principles which make the Shaker Digestive Cordial the rarest and most effective of remedies for one disease, and the only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

Do you suffer from any of these miserable feelings?—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc.—?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shaker Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first doses. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the Cordial at practically no cost, by taking a ten-cent trial bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.
